

Matthew steps out in Scorched Thongs

KENWICK resident Matthew Treadgold is among a group of 30 young dancers in the cast of STEPS Youth Dance Company's latest production.

The 17-year-old John Curtin College of the Arts student will perform in Moonwebs and Scorched Thongs, which will feature the talents of 15 female and 15 male dancers between the ages of 14 and 20.

Moonwebs and Scorched Thongs will take an entertaining and thought-provoking look at gender divisions and blurring and changing male and female attitudes.

In his performance, Matthew will draw on his passion for dancing and his experience with its different styles, which includes ballet, contemporary, hip-hop,

Spanish flamenco, breakdance and jazz.

Moonwebs and Scorched Thongs will be performed from April 3-6 at the Playhouse Theatre, 3 Pier Street, Perth.

Bookings on 9484 1133 and www.bocsticketing.com.au. For more information, call 9226 2133, email info@stepsyouthdance.com.au or visit www.stepsyouthdance.com.au.

Matthew Treadgold. Picture: Martin Kennealey